

User Guide: Ellison 1000 Die Cut Machine

What is it?

The Ellison 1000 is a die cut machine that cuts pre-made shapes into paper and card stock. The Makerspace offers an assortment of Ellison Dies, including a full 4" alphabet. Easy to follow instructions are located on the machine. Call ahead to request dies needed from any of four library branches.

- List of Ellison Die Cut Shapes

What can I do?

The Ellison Die Cut Machine is great for making banners, scrap booking, creating posters or cards, and more! You can cut shapes out of paper or cardstock for your paper crafting projects.

What does the Makerspace provide?

- Ellison 1000 Die Cut Machine
- List of Ellison Die Cut Shapes

What materials do I need?

- Paper or cardstock to cut

Learn

- Watch a video How to Use the Ellison Die Cutter

Thibodaux Branch Makerspace (Machines also available at South Lafourche, Lockport, and Raceland Branches)

- Reserve the Ellison 1000 Die Cut Machine

Reserve

- Call (985) 447-4119 or email thibodaux@lafourche.org about your reservation
- Reservations are held for 15 minutes after start time.
- Cardholder must be present during reservation.